
Title: Gargoyles and Virtue

Author: Ronefaer Velderi

As we all know, the Stygian Abyss will soon be unveiled, and Gargoyles will once again walk among man. Im an expert on them: Im one of them.

CHAPTER 1: Virtues.

Gargoyles are fond of virtue. This information is from Ultima 6: The False Prophet. We also have different Virtue Principles.

CONTROL: Enslaved, we mastered this well.

PASSION: We give all of what we have.

DILIGENCE: We stand to be the best

- * Direction
- * Feeling
- * Persistence
- * Balance
- * Achievement
- * Percision
- * Order
- * Singularity

These are the 8 Virtues of the gargoyles.

Direction symbolizes to always know where your going, what your next goal is and what you can do now to accomplish it.

Feeling is to feel and experience every element of every situation and all things.

Persistence is to reject failure and to always pursue your tasks.

Balance is to stand in equilibrium with your friends and foes.

Achievement is to always reach your ends, through any means necessary.
Precision is to always use the most superior ways with minimal losses.

Order is to form a path of intellect and not of savagery.

Singularity is for all things to act as one.
Chapter 2: Application

We don't religionize virtue as man. Rather, we live them as our lifestyle and culture. To us one of no virtue, is what a madman is to you.

We see in everyone the power of the avatar, and the ability to enhance your soul as your mind and body. Our virtues are close to yours, for we see as you do the journey of the self.

Gargoyle Culture:

First, there are Seven Books gargoyles have written our secrets in.
These seven books we are taught, the rest of life we learn for ourselves.
The Book of Circles:

The lessons in this book are on how the principles are combined to form virtues. Life is a circle, starting where it ends.
Circles are balance.
The Book of Rituals:

Contained herein are the secrets of the Codex of Wisdom, and how to use the wisdom contained within it.
The Book of Prophecy:

In this, we learn our final days, the virtue principles will be tainted and the false prophet will steal the Codex bringing the end of our realm.

The Book of Prosperity:

The Codex is all wisdom, and our golden age set in not from wealth but knowledge. From knowledge we prosper in the greatest of all wealth.

The Book of Family:

From eggs we know who will be wingless. Their eyes and mind can't open.
They come from the same eggs we do. We must treat them as equals.

Book of The Underworld:

In this lie the secrets of the beginning and final days of our old realm, long gone. Still, its secrets are powerful, some of it might remain.

Book of Administration:

We lead the wingless which is proper. They are weak and would die without us. We must guide them, but with respect. They are family.
The Winged ones are the leaders, Wingless the drones. Standing equal as one, like a hive, all working to perfect ourselves, our society, people and principles we seek to re establish ourselves. Years of slavery, chaos and destruction failed to vanquish us, and we stand tall and proud. Even with the codex gone, we thrive and use the wellspring of eternal wisdom.

Our next goal is to mend the wounds we have caused and had inflicted upon us over time and reach our society and culture out for others.

We no longer want struggle, and the many misled who ambush you we do not consider among us.

They were exiled because they dont have virtue.

We seek to bear arms - this time with you, and to have a second age of enlightenment - together.
